ROLF JOHNSON WINS N.Y. TRIP FROM JAYCEES

Rolf Johnson, son of Prof. and Mrs. Lester O. Johnson, 84 E. Broadway, won the grand prize, a New York visit for two, courtesy of Rogal Travel Service, Harrisburg, and the local Jaycees, as Campaign Gettysburg Days ended in a welter of activities. The winning coupon, deposited at Zerling's Hardware, Baltimore St., was drawn by Fred Weiland, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weiland.

Five plaque awards were also made Saturday at 9:30 p.m. in Lincoln Square by the Jaycees: Baker's Battery Service, Baltimore St., for a single flower box; Adams County Motors, York St., for a group of flower boxes; Bix-Sway Men and Boy's Wear, Chambersburg St., for Civil War display; Coffman-Fisher Co., York St., at Lincoln Square, for Civil War merchandising window, and Varsity Diner, Carlisle St., for costumes, William A. Feldmeyer of the Jaycees, named the winners.

Honorable mention went to Adams County courthouse assisted by county 4-H Clubs; Faber's and Sterling Musselman Insurance, single flower box; Rea & Derick, YWCA, Hotel Gettysburg and Bringham Insurance, group of flower boxes; Bender's Gift Shop and Gift Box, Civil War display; Carole Anne Shoppe and Jack & Jill Shoppe, Civil War merchandise display, and Jack and Jill Shoppe, costumes.

JUDGES LISTED

Judges were: Gettysburg Area Garden Club members with Mrs. Robert Reynolds, R. 2, chairman; Mrs. Harold Schuh, R. 5; Mrs. George Zerling, 42 N. Howard Ave.; Miss Nina Storrick, 63 W. Lincoln Ave.; Mrs. Frank Bruner, R. 3, and Mrs. Claude Boycott, R. 5. Displays and costumes were judged by Tom Brown, art supervisor of Fairfield High School; Mrs. Betty Hinkley, art teacher of Gettysburg High School, and John Smarsh, National Park Service.

Clair Slaybaugh's "rebel money auction" peaked at $270,000, a remarkable figure since only $65,000 had been issued. Among the high bids were $1,200 for a razor, $925 for a summer handbag filled with confections, $696 for a 1953 Ford and $500 for a clock radio.

Earlier, at 5:30 p.m., demonstrations by adult craftsmen and county 4-H Clubs ranged from an old-fashioned "tinker" to Civil War bullet makers as every area of the county. Included were pewter spoon making, soap making, quilting, plaiting chair mats, sachets, spinning and weaving, ice cream making, cherry pitting, coffee grinding and butter churning.

More Damage By Vandals

Vandals late Saturday night or early Sunday morning broke the glass on eight of the large exhibit cases on the battlefield, extensively damaged two of the cases as well and destroyed five of the "flashers" put up by the contractor building the new amphitheater on W. Confederate Ave. to warn motorists of the work going on there.

Chief Ranger John Rodgers said it is believed that the damage to the two exhibit cases broken by the vandals can be repaired. In one instance the case itself was broken across. In the other instance a hole was punched in the case.

Rocks were found in two of the cases, apparently the ones used to break the glass across the top of the cases. Rodgers estimated the value of the glass at $20 apiece and said if the glass can be obtained locally the eight exhibits will be repaired prior to the 100th anniversary celebration.

The flashers, Rodgers said, "looked like they had been beaten and parts taken from them." He had no estimate of the value of the flashers.

Firemen To Prepare For Annual Carnival

Gettysburg firemen are asked to be at the Recreation Field each evening, starting this evening, at 6:30 o'clock to assist in preparing for the festival next week, Raymond Menges, general chairman of the 100th anniversary committee of the fire company, announced today.

Menges said Junior Firemen and a number of members of the fire department have been at work for the last week or more at Recreation Field and "things are coming along pretty well. However, a great amount of help will be needed in order to have all tents up, stands furnished, etc., prior to the opening of the festival next Monday evening." Menges said he hoped that all of the preparations at the Recreation Field will be completed by Saturday night to permit the firemen to take part in the firemen's programs Sunday afternoon and evening "without having to bother about the preparations at the Recreation Field."

TO REDEDICATE MONUMENT OF BROOKLYN UNIT

A group of approximately 50 Brooklyn military figures and their wives will rededicate the Gettysburg Battlefield monument marking the spot where the 14th Brooklyn Regiment, dubbed the "Red Legged Devils," fought here 100 years ago. The ceremony will be held July 1 at 10 a.m. at the monument which stands about a half mile west of Gettysburg just north of U. S. 30.

A tablet on the monument, originally dedicated on October 19, 1887, reads: "On this spot at 10:30 a.m. July 1, 1863, this regiment participated in the repulse of Davis' Mississippi Brigade and the capture of a large portion of that command. Took into the engagement 356 officers and men and by the War Department records lost during the three days, 317."

COLONEL TO SPEAK

Col. Theodore J. Krokus, Brooklyn, a former officer of the 14th Infantry, New York National Guard, will deliver the rededication address. Also taking part will be Col. William J. Munday, Maj. Gen. Charles G. Stevenson (ret.), Col. Richard Snyder, deputy adjutant general of Pennsylvania, and Dr. Frederick Tilberg, park historian. Col. James J. Gambee, trustee and acting mayor of Lynbrook, L.I., will serve as chairman. All but Tilberg and Snyder are former officers of the 14th Infantry.

At 2 p.m. on July 1, Gen. Stevenson, representing the New York Civil War Centennial Commission, will take part in the official opening ceremony of the centennial to be conducted by Gov. William W. Scranton. Gen. Stevenson will lay a wreath in behalf of New York during the ceremony at the Eternal Light Peace Memorial.

Pope Paul VI Meets World Leaders, Pledges Self To International Peace Work

By BENNET M. BOLTON
VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI told the leaders of the world today that he would do everything possible to contribute to an international peace founded on truth, justice, love and freedom.

The new pontiff addressed greetings to the world's peoples, nations, leaders and governments at a special audience for the diplomatic corps accredited to the Vatican State.

He pledged that the Vatican under his reign would not interfere in "the affairs or in the interests deriving from temporal powers."

FOUR PILLARS

But while Pope Paul promised no interference in temporal affairs of the world's nations, he said that "one of the duties of the Pope—to which our unforgettable predecessor conferred a singular splendor—is to contribute to the affirmation of peace founded as Pope John XXIII proclaimed with authority on the four pillars of truth, justice, love and freedom."

HANOVER HAS SERVICE FOR BICENTENNIAL

Hanover opened its bicentennial celebration with a largely attended community religious service Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Sheppard and Myers Field. The Rev. Howard J. McCarty, D.D., a graduate of the Lutheran Seminary, presided and the invocation was given by Nat Ginsburg, representing the Jewish congregation in Hanover.

The scripture was read by Mayor Harman and the Rev. Nevil E. Smith, D.D., led in prayer. The bicentennial chorus, directed by Paul F. Worcester, with David Brown at the organ, sang "Thanks Be to God." Louis B. Kirkland in giving the statement of purpose said in brief that the celebration would entail recognition of the past and enthusiasm for the future.

Dr. Abdel Ross Wentz, past president of the Lutheran Seminary, spoke on topic "We Children of Our Founding Fathers." Including himself in the group, since he was born in York County and spent the first two months of his life there, he said, "Most came from the Palatinate in Germany and left there because of war and religious persecution." William Penn, a pious Quaker, accepted in payment of debts due his father a large section of woods, which he later named Penns Woods or Pennsylvania, where he established a place to worship God according to the dictates of their consciences.

BROUGHT BIBLES

He said, "They all brought with them their German Bibles and catechisms, built homes, instituted the rotation of crops and taught their children to live by Christian principles and to work with their hands." He closed his often humorous address by the statement: "We children of theirs have problems as great as theirs in crossing the ocean and conquering the wilderness and by the advent of enterprise and devotion to God. Others have labored for us and we enter into their labor."

Robert E. Slage, representing the Catholic community, gave the closing prayer.

The bicentennial band, directed by Paul Harner and Mr. Shultz, gave concerts before and after the service and will give additional concerts in Wirt Park Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at 7 o'clock. The chorus will sing there on Wednesday evening.

STAHLE DECREE REFUSED AGAIN

Attorney Eugene V. Bulleit Saturday returned his report as master in the supplemental hearing held in the divorce action brought by John C. Stahle, Gettysburg, against his wife, Anna D. (Deatrice) Stahle, Springs Ave.

The additional testimony before the master does not establish grounds for divorce, according to the report filed in the prothonotary's office. Attorney Bulleit recommended that the court enter a decree dismissing the complaint at the cost of Stahle.

Grounds for divorce based on indignities were refused following the first hearing before Attorney Bulleit and a supplemental hearing was asked.

NOT "INJURED, INNOCENT"

At the supplemental hearing, according to the master, additional testimony was heard.

JFK Seeks European Allies In West's Nuclear Defense

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

BONN (AP)—President Kennedy carries his personal campaign for greater Allied unity into policy talks with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer today seeking some way to bring key European nations into partnership with the United States in the nuclear defense of the West.

U.S. officials predicted the strategy and timing of the U.S. proposal for creation of a NATO nuclear missile navy would be chief among the divisive issues Kennedy would discuss with Adenauer and other West German leaders.

GERMAN AGREEMENT

The United States and West Germany agree on the need for such a force. The problem facing Kennedy and Adenauer is now to obtain the agreement of other allies, particularly Britain and Italy. Neither the President nor the chancellor wants an exclusively German-American nuclear force, officials said.

The President was reported to be in excellent spirits following the triumphant welcome he received Sunday as he journeyed from Wahn Airport in brisk sunny weather through the crowded streets of Cologne and Bonn. More than half a million people cheered his progress and members of his party agreed his trip had gotten off to a highly successful start.

Looking at the clamoring thousands at one point, Kennedy said: "Gee whiz it's too bad these people aren't American voters."

"It certainly was a nice welcome," he told German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder. "It could not have been better."

MESSAGE BROADCAST

For most of the long, slow automobile trip, which ran from mid-morning until mid-afternoon, when he arrived at the U.S. Embassy residence in nearby Bad Godesberg, television carried the scene all over Western Europe. Kennedy's words were carried to millions within and beyond the borders of Germany.

The President did not mention French President Charles de Gaulle by name. But much that he said was designed to answer De Gaulle's argument that Western Europe needs its own independent nuclear force or national forces—such as France is building—because it cannot rely on U.S. protection in some future crisis with the Soviet Union.

Kennedy aimed a direct blow at De Gaulle's challenge on this point in his very first statement. Responding to Adenauer's welcome at the Wahn Airport, he told the Europeans:

"So long as our presence is desired and required, our forces and commitments will remain. For your safety is our safety, your liberty is our liberty, and any attack on your soil is an attack upon our own. Our fortunes are one."

JEWISH VETS HOLD SERVICES HERE SUNDAY

Several hundred persons attended the Civil War memorial service of the Jewish War Veterans of the United States Sunday afternoon at the Pennsylvania Monument on the battlefield in honor of Chaplain Ferdinand L. Sarner, first American Jewish chaplain to fall in battle. He was seriously wounded in the Battle of Gettysburg.

The commemorative program was held in cooperation with the Association of Jewish Chaplains of the Armed Forces and was attended by state and department commanders from the third region of Pennsylvania, Maryland and New Jersey. Rabbi Emmanuel Eisenberg, Chambersburg, gave the invocation. Mayor William G. Weaver extended greetings from the people of Gettysburg.

Guest speakers were Morton L. London, national commander of JWW, and Dr. David Max Eichhorn, past president of the Jewish Chaplains and secretary of the National Chaplaincy Centennial Committee. Carl Gelb, past department commander, introduced state commanders and guests. Sam Michelson, Baltimore, regional commander, welcomed the guests.

Hospitality Hits New High Here

Adams County hospitality toward the centennial visitors reached a new high here today when William Krepps, 409 Main St., McSherrystown, wrote to the Centennial Commission office to offer a room in his home free to a visiting couple.

He mentioned a preference for New Englanders but said if this could not be arranged he would accept anyone sent there by the executive committee in charge of housing problems.

"The cooperation of the people of the county has been wonderful in helping us to find quarters for centennial visitors but this beats anything yet," W. Clayton Jester, chairman of the county Centennial Commission, said.

Mr. Jester said his committee is assigning visitors to motels as far as 15 and 20 miles from Gettysburg, if the visitors specify motel accommodations. A York hotel has offered accommodations and plans shuttle bus service between York and Gettysburg and will pack box lunches for their guests to bring here, Jester said.

PURPLE HEART VETS BANQUET HERE SATURDAY

The Pennsylvania Department of the Military Order of the Purple Heart, U.S.A., wound up its 30th annual convention here Saturday evening with a banquet at the Hotel Gettysburg at which Assemblyman Robert S. Ogilvie, Harrisburg, was the principal speaker.

Ogilvie urged veterans to join the various veterans organizations, holding that "without numbers the veterans cannot obtain the legislation which will protect the needy and the widows and orphans."

Pennsylvania's Scotland School for Veterans' Children was described by Ogilvie as the "finest in the United States" and praised the various veterans' organizations for their work in aiding the school. The American Legion, he said, is providing funds for 23 Scotland School graduates to attend colleges. He described various buildings, etc. for which various veterans' groups provided furnishings and equipment.

PULLI ELECTED

Dr. Willard Stevens, superintendent of the school, praised the Purple Heart Veterans for picnics held by them for the children of the school in addition to the gifts given the children at graduation and other activities of the Pennsylvania department and individual units on behalf of the Scotland School children. "Many come from broken homes, or are orphans, and while we can give them education and care, the personal attention and love you give them is a tremendous help to the youngsters."

County Civil War Program Is Moved To July Fourth

Adams County will honor its Civil War veterans at 4 p.m. July 4 instead of July 2 as previously scheduled. The program will be held in front of the GAR hall on E. Middle St.

Change of the date was decided upon Sunday afternoon at a meeting at the courthouse of officers of the Adams County Civil War Centennial Commission and those who have leading parts in the programs June 27, July 1 and July 4, sponsored by the county centennial group.

Change in the date of the service honoring the Adams County Civil War veterans was decided upon to avoid a conflict with a program scheduled by the state Civil War Centennial Commission the evening of July 2 and to provide a program for July 4, for which no other day time program is planned.

TO REPEAT SPEECH

Featured on the July 4 program will be recitation by Attorney Donald P. McPherson, former ICC commissioner, of the speech given by his grandfather, Congressman Edward MacPherson, a Civil War major, at the dedication of the Adams County Civil War veterans monument in front of the Grand Army of the Republic hall on E. Middle St.

The New Oxford Sons of Union Veterans will provide a firing squad for the service and Adams Countians who are descendants of Civil War veterans are urged to participate by placing a wreath or flowers in memory of their ancestors at the Adams County monument during the program.

A number of North-south skirmish groups, living history groups and others are expected to be present in Civil War uniform for the program and countians are asked to dress up in Civil War era clothing to attend the program honoring those from the county who took part in the war.

DO "WALK THROUGH"

Special music is scheduled for the program being arranged by Lt. Col. Corvan Bryan.

Sunday afternoon principal participants in the Thursday evening re-enactment of the capture of Gettysburg by the Confederates 100 years ago Wednesday and Thursday took part in a "walk through" of their parts in the courthouse area. Similarly a semi-rehearsal was held of the program to be given at 10:45 o'clock on the morning of July 1 marking Howard's assumption of command of the Union Army here. That program will depict General Howard at the Fahnestock building, now Gettysburg Hardware Store, on the corner of Middle and Baltimore Sts.

the Jackson police identification bureau, fingerprinted Beckwith Sunday and said his prints matched one on the scope attached to a .30-caliber rifle that fired the fatal shot.

It was Hargrove who first discovered the latent print—one invisible to the eye but brought out by chemicals.

Jackson detectives discovered the gun in mid-morning of June 2, about 10 hours after Evers was shot down in his driveway, in a honeysuckle thicket near where officers believe the shot was fired.

Beckwith, a member of the die-hard segregationist Citizens Council and described as a man who hated Negroes, faces death in the state's gas chamber if convicted on the murder charge.

STAHLE DECREE

al testimony was given concerning "deterioration" of the marriage, but according to the master the testimony showed "the conduct of neither of the parties consisted of such indignities as to justify a divorce."

Holding that there is unhappiness on the part of Stahle, the master said, "Unhappiness in itself is of no significance." According to the testimony, Stahle closed a joint banking account when alleged extravagances by his wife led to it being overdrawn and put her on an allowance. Later he stopped eating at his home "because he did not want to give the defendant the satisfaction of refusing to give him his meals." By January the situation at home had deteriorated to such a degree, according to Stahle's testimony, that he stopped sleeping at home and slept at his mother's home.

The master ruled that through such actions, the "deterioration of the marriage was expedited as much by the conduct of the plaintiff as by the conduct of the defendant, so he is not an injured and innocent spouse."

Pope Paul VI

he walked among the diplomats and chatted with almost everyone.

BUSY MORNING

It was a busy morning for the new Pope, elected scarcely 72 hours earlier. Before receiving the diplomats, he held a special audience for the priests of Rome in the Clementine Hall.

At the end of the audience, Pope Paul seemed almost moved to tears as he gave his blessing to the thousands of priests gathered in the hot and humid hall.

He spoke to them in a firm and clear voice, telling them the spreading of the gospel in "our modern and so profane world, especially so hostile to religion, depends above all... on the clergy."

Pope Paul said his period as archbishop of Milan had "sort of trained him" for a dialogue with the "protagonists of the modern world: Scientists, artists, industrialists, businessmen (and) that giant but still sometimes short-sighted and uncertain protagonist, the working man."

CHRISTIAN UNITY

Meanwhile, Pope Paul was reported to have guaranteed continuation of the Christian unity organization set up by Pope John XXIII.

The organization is the Secretariat for Promoting Christian Unity, headed by Augustin Cardinal Bea, 82, a German Jesuit. Official Vatican sources said that when Cardinal Bea approached during the initial homages by the cardinals in the Sixtine Chapel Friday, Pope Paul expressed great pleasure with the secretariat's work and said he wanted it continued.

STAMP OF APPROVAL

Such an endorsement is known in the Vatican as a papal "placet" (it is pleasing)—an official though unwritten stamp of approval.

The secretariat was created in 1960 to be the Vatican's liaison with other Christian churches and to invite Protestant and Orthodox churchmen to the Ecumenical Council. It is regarded as one of the most liberal organizations in the Vatican.

The secretariat existed only upon the word of Pope John, however, and had not been added to the permanent organization of the Church.

The Ecumenical Council is expected to get back into full session early next year. Pope John recessed the council last December until Sept. 8 Pope Paul announced last Saturday he would continue the council.

Beechwood Church of Christ, Pittsburgh. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert J. Roe.

The church was decorated with a bank of greens. A church choir sang "Through the Years," "Whither Thou Goest," "Just a Closer Walk With Thee," "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin and "Wedding Recessional."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of peau de soie satin. The fitted bodice of Alencon lace was fashioned with sweetheart neckline and long tapered sleeves. The bouffant skirt was accented with a high bow in the back and dipped slightly to form a chapel train. A matching white satin pillow held her elbow-length bouffant veil of French imported illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and ivy centered with a white orchid.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

A very fine looking company of cavalry arrived here on Sunday morning from Philadelphia and proceeded immediately to duty on the roads towards Hagerstown and Chambersburg. They are equipped in the finest manner and we understand are paying their own expenses, determined to aid the State in every way to repel the vandal hordes who have invaded her borders. We regret to learn that one of their number was thrown from his horse in the darkness on Sunday night and seriously injured. He was taken back to Philadelphia and we trust will soon be able to return to his duty. Maj. Haller of General Couch's staff is also here, superintending the organization of the Militia and directing affairs for the defense of the country.

Off For The Wars: All honor to the Students of Pennsylvania College. Nearly a full company left on the cars on Thursday morning under command of Capt. Frederick Klinefelter for Harrisburg, under the call of the Governor for militia to repel the invasion. Sixty men answered to their names. A number of our citizens enrolled their names and went along. Before starting the men were drawn up in line in the Diamond and addressed by Prof. Muehlenberg in a feeling and patriotic manner. They moved off in the best of spirits. This is creditable to Pennsylvania College, which has been obliged to suspend the session a few weeks in consequence. Capt. Bell's cavalry was ready to start on Thursday morning, but having been assigned to special duty in this county they did not get off. Additional companies will doubtless be raised during the next few days. The emergency will not admit of delay. A company of infantry from Two Taverns commanded by Capt. Durbin also tendered their services and have been accepted. The authorities at Harrisburg are making every exertion to repel the invasion and if the people will only come forward and assist, we trust the invaders will soon be driven back. Harrisburg is being fortified and the Proclamation of the Governor calling for troops is being responded to by our own and adjoining states in a most cheering manner. Old Pennsylvania cannot allow her soil to be polluted by the presence of these rebel bands.

Invasion Of The North: There has been much excitement here all week owing to the presence of the Confederates in the neighboring Counties. A few words will give the cause. The Rebels after obliging Gen. Milroy to evacuate Winchester sent a large force over the Potomac river at Williamsport and Hancock, one division coming to Hagerstown and the other going to Cumberland. They took possession of Hagerstown and on Monday night of last week a force of 850 cavalry and mounted infantry invaded Chambersburg. They remained until Wednesday afternoon, when they left in great haste, after taking drugs and goods from the stores, sometimes paying for them in Confederate money. They set fire to a warehouse but the fire was extinguished by the citizens. They carried with them some horses persons but otherwise doing little damage. They retreated towards Hagerstown and on Friday there was a large force still there, probably 20,000 infantry, 2,000 cavalry and artillery numbering twenty or more guns. On Saturday night Jenkins cavalry, say 2,000, were encamped a short distance beyond Waynesboro and on Sunday moved up the South Mountain. The woods were scoured by their skirmishers on foot, in advance on each side of the turnpike. When our informants left they had reached Monterey Springs, on the top of the mountain, firing

Today's Talk

THEY WEREN'T SOFTIES
To the one who thinks our world is going to the "bow-wow" I would suggest the reading of a good American history.

The men who braved the seas in their frail crafts, and stood solid in the face of stress, storms and heartaches — searching for new worlds to conquer — they were not softies!

The men who cleared the forests, built the railroads, and founded cities — the men who left their life-blood upon the ground, as they pioneered westward in the covered wagons, they spent no time feeling sorry for themselves. They were no softies.

The men and women who sacrificed, braved danger, slept under the stars at night, and put their faith in a Divine Providence, were folk of stamina, courage, and spiritual background. They were builders of our heritage.

Can we fail a confused age in the face of such memories? Who are they who now would destroy our faith, our confidence, or our will to carry on their unfinished tasks?

The story of men and nations is one of ceaseless travail. To seek ease, to be content with "well enough," to leave the big and difficult jobs to others, is to own a soft heart and a flabby soul!

Only the soft and idle pity themselves. With problems to solve, with difficulties all about you, you have the challenge to win over them — to be a somebody.

The great trouble with most modern life is that it has been made too soft. Most of us need a new baptism of courage and the will to do, no matter how humble or difficult the going may be.

Softies have never had their deeds recorded. They never did anything to record.

There are enough brave men and women now in the world to work out all our problems. The best is yet to come!

Let college graduates take note.

SUMMER

Bees are in the blossoms,

Birds are on the wing,

Roses climb, and summertime

Is kissing every thing.

Little pansy faces

Wink and smile at me,

And far and near there's not a

That human eye can see.

There's beauty in the garden

There's beauty in the sky,

The stately phlox and hollyhocks

Have put their sorrows by.

The gentle breath of summer

Has blown the cares away;

All nature sings, for morning

Brings

Another lovely day.

Yet some are blind to beauty

And some are deaf to song.

The troubled brow is heard to vow

That all the world is wrong.

And some display their sorrow,

And some bewail their woe

And some men sigh that love must

And summertime must go.

Yet some there are who blossom

Like roses in the sun

Who dare to climb in summertime

When all their care is done

They hide 'neath smiles of beauty

The sorrows they have borne

They seem content that God hath

at several bodies of persons on horseback on the route. Near dusk a body of their cavalry entered Fairfield, in this county, and but eight miles from Gettysburg. Their number it estimated at from fifty to one hundred. The rebel cavalry that entered Fairfield on Sunday passed stopping, taking the direct road to Fountaineau on the turnpike. A few days will no doubt determine the length of their stay in this neighborhood. It is possible that a great battle will be fought, before they will be allowed to return to Virginia, as Gen. Hooker is moving rapidly along with Gen. Lee and a collision is almost certain.

The League of American Wheelmen on their ninth annual meet assembled in Baltimore on Monday last. The program for each day was varied but Tuesday was decided the greatest day of any meet they have yet held. In the morning the annual parade on wheels took place. In the afternoon the racing took place at the Arlington Driving Park. At night the "smoker," a novel entertainment, was given at the Concordia Opera House. Messrs. G. H. Buehler and Robert Wible represented the cyclists from this place.

ANTLERLESS DEER SEASON VOTED IN PA.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania will have a two-day antlerless deer season this year as a result of action taken Saturday by the State Game Commission.

The commission set Dec. 16 and 17 as the open season after hearing testimony that the state's deer herd was too large.

The testimony came from representatives of Pennsylvania's multi-million dollar lumber industry. They contended that an excessive number of deer in state forests was causing considerable damage to timber.

The testimony came from representatives of Pennsylvania's multi-million dollar lumber industry. They contended that an excessive number of deer in state forests was causing considerable damage to timber.

"Forest industries and foresters face the problem that too many deer are eating up the new, young tree growth, especially of the most valuable trees," said William Nagy of Titusville.

He appeared at the commission hearing on game seasons and bag limits as a representative of the forest resource committee of the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce.

Nagy's statement was supported by Tom W. Lette of Roulette, chairman of the wildlife and recreation subcommittee of the Pennsylvania Forest Industries Committee.

He quoted statistics estimating the size of the state's deer herd now at 485,000. He said this was 45 per cent above the desired figure set by the commission.

In other action, the commission set the wild turkey season for most of the state for Nov. 2-16.

The season will extend through Nov. 23 in the counties of Cameron, Centre, Clearfield, Clinton, Elk, Forest, Jefferson, Lycoming, McKean, Potter, Sullivan, Tioga, Union, Warren and in those parts of Blair and Huntingdon counties north of Route 22, and in that part of Mifflin County north of Route 22, west of Lewistown and north of Route 522, east of Lewisburg, and in that part of Snyder County north of Route 522, and in those parts of Bradford, Columbia, Luzerne, Montour, Northumberland and Wyoming Counties north and west of the North Branch of the Susquehanna River.

The season bag limit on turkey is one.

OTHER SEASON DATES

The open season on hares (snowshoe rabbits) is Dec. 26-Jan. 4 with two the daily bag limit and six the season limit. There will be no open season on hares in Bedford, Blair, Cambria, Centre, Elk, Forest, Huntingdon, Jefferson, McKean, Somerset and Warren Counties.

Here are the open season dates on other game with the daily and season bag limits in parentheses: Small game—Cottontail rabbits Nov. 2-30, Dec. 26-Jan. 4 (4, 20); Mr. Amos Eckert's store has been replaced by a force pump.

Memorial Church: The cornerstone of the Memorial Church will be laid by Bishop Howe on Monday, July 22, at 2:30 o'clock p.m. The music will be led by the supplied choir of St. John's Church, York. The exercises will consist of addresses and offertory and the public are cordially invited to attend. There will be services in the Church of the Prince of Peace at 10:30 a.m. Sunday July 1st, Rev. T. P. Ege, of Germantown, officiating.

Army Of The Potomac Reunion: July 1st, 2nd and 3rd will be the twenty-fifth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg and the nineteenth anniversary of the formation of the Society of the Army of the Potomac. The society for months has been making preparations for the events which they propose to make the greatest affair of the kind ever yet attempted in this country and it will undoubtedly be the largest reunion ever held in our place. Not only will the Society of the Army of the Potomac be here but, as already announced by us, the veterans and one regiment of the N.G. of New Jersey will arrive on the 28th and 29th. A delegation of over 300 with Governor Rusk and distinguished citizens of Wisconsin on the 29th and the Grand Army of the Republic Department of Pennsylvania will arrive on Sunday. The Society of the Army of Northern Virginia will be largely represented and thousands of civilians will swell the lists.

Spahn Beats Giants To Tighten NL Race; Willey Wins As Mets Quit Cellar

By JIM BECKER

Associated Press Sports Writer
Carl Willey is the only state of Maine in the major leagues. Warren Spahn is the only Warren Spahn.

To their unique status each added a sparkling performance Sunday.

Willey pitched his third shutout of the season, became the only New York Mets starter who has won as many as he has lost and played the key role in pitching the club out of the National League cellar for the first time ever as late as June.

SPAHN BEATS GIANTS

Spahn beat the San Francisco Giants 10-4 for his 10th victory, eighth complete game and 337th career win, and hit his 33rd home run, high for National League pitchers.

Spahn's victory kept the second place Giants from moving up on the league-leading St. Louis Cardinals, who fell to the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-3.

While the leaders were faltering, the Cincinnati Reds charged to within one game of the top by sweeping a doubleheader from the pumchless Houston Colts, 4-0 and 8-1. The Colts fell into 10th place.

Pittsburgh battled back to take the Chicago Cubs 7-6.

Willey won the first game of a doubleheader over the Philadelphia Phils 5-0, and Tracy Stallard, with ninth-inning help from Al Jackson, won the second 4-1.

Willey, 32, was born in Cherryfield, Maine, and even speaks to umpires with a broad A. He set the Phils down with two hits, triples by Johnny Callison in the fourth and Tony Taylor in the sixth, and evened his record at 6-6, best on the Mets.

Jimmy Piersall hit his first homer as a Met in the first game, his 100th of his career, and celebrated the occasion by circling the bases running backwards.

SHUTOUT FOR PURKEY

Spahn gave up homers to Harvey Kuenn and Tom Haller and trailed 3-2 after Hank Aaron's 21st home run for the Braves. With one out in the fifth, the fantastic 42-year-old left-hander homered off Jack Sanford to tie the score. That set off a seven-run inning.

Bob Purkey threw the first game shutout for the Reds over the Colts, the first complete game this season for the sore-armed right-hander who won 23 games last year. It was the fourth straight shutout defeat for the Colts, tying a major league mark, and the sixth straight victory for the Reds.

They made it seven in the second game behind Joe Nuxhall and Dom Zanni, who pitched the last two innings. Houston finally scored in the second inning, after 40 scoreless innings.

Johnny Edwards hit a three-run homer for the Reds in the opener and Bob Skinner, Vada Pinson and Jesse Gonder homered in the second game.

Jim Gilliam's three-run homer off Ernie Broglio carried the Dodgers to victory and to within 1½ games of the lead.

The winning pitcher was Bob Miller, who took over for starter Johnny Podres in the first after Dick Groat had hit a two-run homer. Miller went six and allowed the other run, and Ron Peranowski finished up.

Roberto Clemente struck the major blow for the Pirates, a three-run homer in the seventh inning. The Cubs knocked out starter Vernon Law in a four-run first but frittered away the lead on some shabby fielding. Ron Santo homered for a 6-4 Cub lead but Glen Hobbie couldn't hold it.

WINS AT HERSHEY

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Geno Gasper of Hershey won the state American Legion Golf Tournament over the weekend with a one-over-par 143 for 36 holes.

Hershey Post No. 396 took the team trophy with an aggregate score of 605 by its four top golfers.

PIERSALL RUNS BACKWARDS ON 100TH HOMER

NEW YORK (AP)—New York Met centerfielder Jimmy Piersall, a right hander, hit his 100th home run, an opposite field blast against the Philadelphia Phils Sunday.

For a laugh Piersall ran backward around the bases.

The Phils didn't think it was funny. At the end of the doubleheader the Philadelphia Phils weren't laughing.

They had lost twice to the Mets—5-0, in the first game when Piersall's homer aided a splendid two-hit performance by Carlton Willey, and 4-1 in the nightcap.

BLACK DAY FOR PHILS

In the opener the Phils' only hits were triples, one by Johnny Callison, who was thrown out at home trying to score on a grounder, and one by Tony Taylor.

In the nightcap, Tracy Stallard and Al Jackson combined for a seven hit performance. The Phils' Rhyme Duren had limited the Mets to one hit for five innings but Duke Snider singled and Sammy Taylor tripled in the sixth for one surprise Sunday by edging Taneytown 4-3 which dropped the losers in second place and elevated Arendtsville into the league lead. Arendtsville walloped Harney 10-4.

Bonneauville pulled a stunning

Taneytown is one-half a game back of Arendtsville and has a make-up scheduled at Mummasburg Wednesday evening at 6:15. A victory for Taneytown would create a first-place tie and necessitate a playoff with Arendtsville for first-half honors. Arendtsville would clinch the honors if Mummasburg tops Taneytown.

Although a number of other first-half games have not been played it appears unlikely they will be played inasmuch as they will not affect the race.

Gettysburg dumped Littlestown 7-4 under the lights at Littlestown Saturday evening.

NEW OXFORD WINS 2

New Oxford copped a pair of victories over the weekend, topping Fairfield 6-5 Saturday afternoon at New Oxford and winning at Brushtown Sunday 8-3. Ron Weigle was the big gun in Saturday's victory as he pitched and batted his team to victory. He struck out 12 and did not walk a batter while allowing five hits.

John Mort hit a two-run homer for Fairfield which scored all of its runs in the sixth. Weigle smashed a home run and pair of doubles with Gene Groff aiding on a pair of safeties.

Fairfield went on a wild scoring spree to wallopp Mummasburg 17-6 on the latter's field.

Cashtown took a 7-6 thriller from McSherrystown by tabbing three runs in the last of the 10th after McSherrystown had taken a 6-4 lead with a pair of runs in the top of the seventh inning. Singles by Chapman and Biesecker, a walk and two errors produced the three runs.

Heiser started on the mound for Cashtown but gave way to Biesecker in the third inning, the latter picking up the decision. Ron Asper hurled the entire game for McSherrystown.

YORKER WINS RACE

NEWBERRYTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Paul Miller of York finished a car length ahead of Johnny Crawford of Bloomsburg at Susquehanna Speedway Sunday night to win the 25-lap feature race for modified stock cars. The winning time was 9 minutes, 4.09 seconds for the 12½ mile distance.

In the seventh Al Moral drove in a run with a triple and he scored on Rod Kanehl's single. Ron Hunt homered in the eighth. Stallard gave up the Phils' only run of the day in the eighth, but it wasn't until the ninth that Jackson relieved him.

Highest single game in the 1963 Women's International Bowling Congress championship was 268 turned in by Suzanne Crum of Biloxi, Miss., Dorothy Rowe of Phoenix and Sylvia Wene of Philadelphia.

Fairfield Pony League

Cashtown remained undefeated in the Fairfield Pony League as it turned back Fairfield 5-4 on the winner's diamond and the Amvets defeated Mummasburg 25-4 to move into second place in a pair of contests on Saturday.

Cashtown scored four runs in the fourth inning to break a 1-1 tie. The winners tallied their runs on three singles, a sacrifice and a long double by Cook. Fairfield made a desperate comeback in the top of the seventh to score three runs, but the Cashtown defense held off a final tying run.

Cook and T. Kessel paced Cashtown with a pair of safeties while Fairfield's seven safeties were scattered among seven men. Mort banged out a home run for Fairfield.

The Amvets had little trouble on their home diamond in wallopp Mummasburg 25-4 in a free scoring and hitting affair.

Boros has been the finest player on the PGA tour in the last two months. His career earnings top $300,000.

"He is a great player," said Cupit, who finished three strokes behind Boros with a 2-over-par 73. "I think he rates as one of the best three players in golf right now."

With Cupit away shakily and Palmer far off his game and finally out of it completely with a triple bogey 7 at the 11th hole, Boros took control with birdies after brilliant close-in iron shots on the fourth and fifth holes. He ran in a 10-foot uphill curling putt for another birdie at the ninth to make the turn in a 2-under-par 33 and then clinched matters with a 10-footer for a birdie at the 17th when Cupit was making a mild challenge.

Gittlen, Burgoon Under Par To Win

HARRISBURG (AP)—A pair of former Penn State golf team captains, Warren Gittlen of Harrisburg and Dick Burgoon of Camp Hill, are winners of the seventh annual George Morris best-ball amateur championship.

Gittlen and Burgoon scored a 1-up victory in their finals match Sunday against Harvey Smith, former state amateur champion from Ambler, and Fran Nixon of Glenside.

The winners posted a three-under par 68. The losers were one stroke back. The four-day tournament was played over the 6,700-yard Colonial Country Club course.

JULIUS BOROS WINS NATIONAL OPEN, $16,000

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—Julius (Moose) Boros, the oldest man ever to win the National Open golf tournament, is a hulking, plodding, pleasant fellow who rarely shows emotion but lifts a disdainful eyebrow when anyone mentions the Big Three.

"I felt a little reluctant to accept that big check," Boros quipped with $16,000 in his baggy pants after a 1-under par 70 Sunday had swept him to his second Open title in a three-way playoff with ailing Arnold Palmer and young Jack Cupit.

"I thought it was already in the bank for one of the Big Three." Boros wouldn't dwell on the subject but it was plain he shared the feeling of many professionals that the public has been led unjustly to believe that golf starts and stops these days with Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player.

The fact that he whipped the mighty Palmer by six shots—even though Arnold was off his feed, said he felt lousy and rushed away from the course with hardly a word—obviously was a great satisfaction to the 6-foot, 200-pound veteran from Connecticut.

Since Boros turned professional in 1947, he has performed as well as anyone in America's premier championship with nine finishes in the top 10. He has won the Open twice, the first time in 1952, and has been second twice, third once, fourth twice, fifth one and ninth once.

3RD TITLE SINCE MAY

Abel, Slaybaugh Win At Lincoln

Bobby Abel, Wrightsville, modified stock car star, notched his second feature win at Lincoln Speedway Saturday night. Abel started in eighth position, took the lead from Gene Goodling on the ninth lap and lead to the flag.

Neil Haight, Gene Goodling, Paul Miller, Diz Dean, Ben Landis and Bud Thiele followed. Bobby Hersh was sidelined with fuel troubles on the pace lap. Irvin King failed to take the flag on the first lap.

Heat winners were Ken Slaybaugh, Ray Wildasin, Gene Goodling, Paul Miller, Bud Folkenroth. Consolation honors went to Neil Haight.

Kenny Slaybaugh chalked up another late model win in the late 20-lap main event. Mike Woolford, Herb Fox, Leroy Laver and Junior Eckert followed.

A 10-car demolition derby rounded out the program at the half-mile dirt race plant. Bill Hess of Hanover took the win with a '54 Dodge.

Yankees Romp Over Bosox To Stretch AL Lead; Orioles Win

By JIM HACKLEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
From so-so finisher to super starter-finisher in six weeks—that's the success story of Jim Bouton.

The hefty youngster wrote another winning chapter Sunday in the New York Yankees' 8-0 romp over the Boston Red Sox, firing a four-hitter that helped the Bombers edge a hit further in front in the American League race.

For Bouton, a routine reliever until pressed into the starting rotation six weeks ago, it was victory No. 10. He has nailed eight of those in his 10 starts and has lost just once since his bullpen days—a 10-0 score.

3RD STRAIGHT

For the Yanks, it was the third straight victory after an opening game loss in the set at Boston and it pushed the once-surging Red Sox five lengths off the pace. Next on the Yankees' agenda is a four-game stand at Chicago starting tonight against the second-place White Sox, who shipped two games behind Sunday in a split with Cleveland.

Pete Ward's two-run single in the eighth inning gave Chicago a 2-1 decision over the Indians before Cleveland right-hander Barry Latman tossed a five-hit 2-0 shutout at the White Sox.

Elsewhere in the AL—Al Smith's key hits and Stu Miller's neat relief highlighted Baltimore's 4-1 victory over Minnesota; the Detroit Tigers broke loose for eight runs in the eighth inning and crushed Kansas City 11-2; and Tom Cheney pulled the Washington Senators out of a 10-game losing slump, allowing only four hits in a 4-0 shutout over the Los Angeles Angels.

14TH FOR MARIS
The Yanks, on the way to their 10th victory in the last 11 games, built up a 4-0 lead as Bouton held the Red Sox hitless until Dick Stuart's leadoff double in the fifth inning. Roger Maris helped put the finishing touches on the rout with his 14th homer in the eighth and a run-scoring single in the ninth.

Bouton, 10-2, recorded his sixth complete game and lowered his earned run average to 2.06. Earl Wilson, forced out with minor shoulder injury suffered in a first-inning collision with teammate Ed Bressoud, was the loser.

Lefty Jack Kralick blanked the White Sox until two were out in the eighth inning of the first game, then singles by Al Weis and Floyd Robinson and a walk loaded the bases, setting the stage for Ward's deciding hit. Ray Herbert won it, with strong two-inning relief from Hoyt Wilhelm.

PARKER WINS 11TH

Latman struck out seven and did not allow a walk in the Tribe's second game victory. Cleveland got its two runs in the first against towering rookie Dave DeBusschere.

Smith homered, doubled and singled for Baltimore, driving in two runs, scoring one and setting up another Miller turned the Twin back without a hit after replacing Steve Barber with the bases full and one out in the seventh. Barber won his 11th against five defeats, with Dick Stigman the loser.

Bubba Phillips had a triple and three singles in Detroit's 10-hit offense. The A's clipped Mickey Lolich for 11 hits, but the rookie southpaw went the distance as the Tigers beat Kansas City for the third time in a row. Detroit had lost 10 straight before taking on the A's, who have dropped seven of their last eight.

Cheney, notching his fourth shutout for the last-place Senators, permitted only one Angel beyond second base.

U.S. HOPES IN WIMBLEDON ARE BRIGHTER

CLEO'S FATE IN HANDS OF MOVIE GOERS

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Cleopatra" has finally barged down the aisle and now her fate is in the hands of the ticket buyers.

The movie cost $40 million, Spyros Skouras' job and Eddie Fisher's marriage.

What about the $40 million of 20th Century-Fox's treasury?

Skouras' successor as president, Darryl Zanuck, figures the company will have to get back $62 million before turning a profit. That's a lot of tickets.

GOOD BET

Industry insiders figure it's a pretty good bet. The epic got off to a roaring start in its New York and Hollywood openings. Although most critics have been testy about the film's length (four hours plus intermission), the reviews have ranged from raves to general acceptance, with only a few scattered pans.

Cleopatra opens in 48 American cities Wednesday. The first foreign premiere is in London July 26 with other dates being set for Europe and South America. Criticisms of over-length may be abated by the deletion of 22 minutes of running time since the New York premiere.

SCRIBE ANSWERS

Those who have seen "Cleopatra" are inevitably barraged with questions: How is it? How does she look? How are the love scenes?

The answers from this reviewer are: It's a crackling good movie; She looks fabulous; the love scenes are convincing.

The burden of the film's publicity fell on Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton. It may then be surprising to some to recognize the immense contributions of Joseph Mankiewicz and Rex Harrison to the success of "Cleopatra."

Mankiewicz has skirted most of the chestnuts that have been worked over and over in epics since D. W. Griffith. The bloody battles are held to a minimum, and the grandeur seldom overwhelms the figures in the foreground. Only Cleopatra's entrance to Rome seems overripe, like a Pasadena Rose Parade gone mad. Harrison is a marvel, every inch an emperor. He commands attention from his entrance to the moment he is backed up in the Senate. He has been gifted with brilliant dialogue of which Mankiewicz is a master.

RUNS THIRD

Miss Taylor is not to be slighted — as if anyone could. Other actresses might have brought more to the dramatics; her voice is sometimes more little-girl than sometimes. But no one — not even the original — could seem more like Cleopatra. Males and females alike will be fascinated by her flawless face and the infinite variety of costumes which she mostly wears.

Richard Burton runs third in the acting honors, and it is no reflection on his plentiful talent. He is stuck with playing a declining Anthony whose greatness as a man and soldier has been dulled by wine and lust.

Also, Burton's moments come in the latter two hours, when it is almost beyond human capacity to maintain attention. Even Cleo's décolletage begins to lose its appeal by then.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

FRAGRANT AIRS. If you have ever been repelled by a woman's overpowering perfume—in a crowded bus, let's say—you know that a scent can be cloying. But the fact that a few women misuse fragrance should not keep others from using it.

When applied with a deft touch, fragrance enhances a woman's most feminine qualities and her security in their appeal. Those around her can only take pleasure in her aura.

During the summer months, scents offer an additional boon. They are a means to instant refreshment. The use of light floral, spicy and leafy perfumes or colognes brings an immediate sense of relief from oppressive heat.

Merely splash your wrists and throat with a light perfume and you feel fresher. A cologne rub-down after a bath keeps you feeling frosty for hours. If the essence is truly delicate, you can apply it liberally and often, without fear of giving offense.

Actually, more women err on the side of applying too little than too much fragrance. A scent should be perceivable or, like the rose that blushes all unseen, it cannot give enjoyment.

Just what is the saturation point? Well, perfume chemists—those men with trained noses—say that your fragrance should per-

ED SULLIVAN REVIEWS HIS YEARS ON TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP)—Ed Sullivan celebrated his 15th anniversary in television Sunday night with a 90-minute show stitched together from old Sullivan show appearances captured on film and video tape.

The program was not exactly representative of his CBS program through the years—no drill teams, animal acts, or acrobats and no one did an imitation of Sullivan. But there were a lot of star names.

There was an awkward bit of conversation between Sullivan and Clark Gable, quips, if I remember rightly, from something plugging a Gable movie. There was a mad sketch made in 1951 with Jackie Gleason—then almost a skinny fellow—and Art Carney.

Gary Cooper played a scene from a movie. Jack Benny came up with a miser gag. Fred Astaire danced. There were Russian dancers, short takes from a lot of comedians.

Anyway, it proved that 15 years is a long time.

TROUBLES FOR NBC

NBC had rough going covering the National Open golf playoff Sunday. The three players were far from any television cameras when the network coverage started at 4:30 p.m.

The announcers chatted nervously and endlessly for almost an hour, helped out by showing video tapes of Saturday's play. When the players finally reached the cameras, NBC was forced to postpone "Meet the Press" an hour later than scheduled. Last week, "Meet the Press" lost out completely to golf, but this week's interview was with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and NBC wasn't about to knock him off the air.

Recommended tonight: "Password," CBS, 10-10:30 (ET) — amusing game show, with Jack Paar and Betty White as guest stars.

Many College Grads Get More Training In Industry

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—After 16 years of preparing for jobs, graduates are pouring out of colleges just now—and many are being plunked right into corporate versions of classrooms.

Most who already have traveled the post-college course of company training say they found it worthwhile. But many are critical of their business-type teachers.

Almost all of the 2,000 or so companies that recruit prospects in the nation's colleges—at an average cost of $1,000 per graduate hired—have some sort of program for teaching them the facts of corporate life. The companies, and most of the graduates who have gone through the company mill, give the results high marks in a survey by the National Industrial Conference Board.

PROGRAM ENDURED

But one of last year's trainees says his most valuable experience was "the training program that I endured." He explains:

"I decided if I could put up with all that I did on the program, I could put up with anything. And I have. I have been called on for many things that I don't think a well-organized program would have taught me. Like cadets, I wouldn't do it again but I am proud to have gone through it."

More typical perhaps was another's appraisal of his company's policy of easing a trainee into a problem and letting him solve it himself. He says: "This self-development gave me the ability to make decisions that were my own, and not decisions that follow from someone telling me how to make the decision."

Views of 1,074 graduates who have completed training were tabulated by the conference board. The large majority called their business supervisors capable. But 291 found the instruction weak and without challenge, and 176 labeled the training too academic and short on actual doing. Some echoed the post-trainee who said:

"Some supervisors did not understand the purpose of the training program, and showed little or no interest in my presence on the job."

"A college education is not essential for success in a training program."

Break Up Fight On Jones Beach

JONES BEACH, N.Y. (AP)—Police broke up a free-for-all in a beach parking lot Sunday and banished 10 bathing-suit-clad young men on disorderly conduct charges.

"Too much beer, too much sun and too much youth," was one park policeman's description of the disturbance involving about 100 youths fighting with fists and beer cans.

A few black eyes and bloody noses were the only injuries. The arrested youths, all white, were jailed in Mineola to await arraignment today.

DEMOS FAVOR CHICAGO FOR CONVENTION

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrats get down to the business today of picking a site for their 1964 presidential nominating convention with Chicago reported a slight favorite among six bidding cities.

The Republican National Committee's choice of San Francisco for its convention brought television-radio network pressure to pick the same city for the Democratic meeting. This would avoid a transfer of heavy broadcast equipment.

JFK PREFERS MID-WEST

There were reports that, all things considered, President Kennedy would prefer to receive his second nomination in the Middle West, where Republicans hope to marshal a substantial portion of their efforts to defeat him for reelection.

The site committee, however, has other financially attractive offers from Atlantic City, N.J., Baltimore, Detroit, Miami Beach, Miami and Philadelphia.

The full national committee meets Tuesday to act on the recommendation of the site committee and another committee which meets today to recommend the allocation of convention delegates.

COW PALACE SESSIONS

The Republicans got guarantees of $650,000 in cash, some free hotel rooms for convention officials, programs and other benefits for agreeing to meet in San Francisco. Sessions will be held in the Cow Palace, where Dwight D. Eisenhower was nominated for a second term.

The selection of San Francisco was attributed in part to the feeling among party leaders that local publicity would gain early identification for their candidate with the voters in a state Kennedy lost by a narrow margin in 1960.

SETS JULY 13

The July 13 opening date signaled Republican intentions to get their campaign under way early. Democrats are not expected to convene until mid-August.

Kennedy already has picked Gov. Edmund G. Brown to run his California re-election. Last year Brown won re-election in a battle with former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who had carried California in the 1960 presidential contest.

The Republicans charted a four-day meeting, with the possibility of a fifth, if the fight over their top nominee becomes a long drawn out affair.

The Democrats probably will settle for a three-day show, starting Kennedy with a personal appearance accepting the nomination.

Blind Man Stabs Friend In Street

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The blind man stood against the wall, clutching a pen knife in his hand. He listened. The "tap, tap, tap" of the cane on the pavement grew louder.

Suddenly he leaped out and stabbed the passing man in the neck and right arm.

Detective Pat Cannon said the stabbing occurred after two blind friends "got into a dispute over cigarette money" in a tavern.

One of the blind men, Arthur Hinson, 45, was held in $500 bail for further hearing on charges of assault and battery. His friend, Louis Prather, 37, was listed in fair condition with stab wounds at hospital.

Cannon said Hinson and Prather argued in the tavern and Hinson left with Prather following him.

WRITERS HONORED
WASHINGTON (AP)—Three reporters from Pennsylvania and Delaware are among 19 writers on 12 eastern newspapers honored by the American Political Science Association.

Cited for excellent reporting of public affairs were Sonya Sharp, of the Allentown (Pa.) Morning Call, James F. Welsh, of the Harrisburg (Pa.) Patriot-News and Philip M. Boffey, of the Wilmington (Del.) Morning News.

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP)—Leo W. Ryan, 67, former supreme governor of the Loyal Order of Moose, died Saturday at his home after a long illness.

Roanoke College Names New Prexy

ROANOKE, Va. (AP)—Roanoke College of Salem, Va. Saturday elected Dr. Perry F. Kendig, once the youngest high school principal in Pennsylvania as its seventh president.

Kendig had served as a professor of English and dean of the college since 1952.

Kendig, 52, received his B.A. degree from Franklin and Marshall College and M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Pennsylvania.

He was the youngest high school principal in Pennsylvania when he served at the East Drumore township high school in Lancaster County.

He taught at the University of Pennsylvania, Drexel Institute of Technology and Muhlenberg College before becoming dean at Roanoke.

The 50-year-old osteopath, a key figure in the Profumo scandal, was again refused bail. He went back to jail to await a full hearing Friday.

Nature of the new charges, one accusing Ward of procuring a woman identified as "Miss X," emerged in legal fencing between defense and government lawyers.

ARRESTED EARLIER

Ward was arrested June 8 on charges of living off the earnings of prostitution. The prosecution announced at this first court appearance that it had more serious charges against Ward. Rumors immediately began flying that the charges might involve security or blackmail, but Ward's attorneys said the latest accusations concerned neither.

Defense attorney James Burge said the first five new charges are expansions of the original charge. The sixth, he continued, "refers to a lady, Miss X, being procured on Jan. 5, 1963, and is all really part of the same allegation."

The other two charges accuse Ward of advising "an unknown person" to commit a crime—"unlawfully using an instrument to procure the miscarriage of a woman," Burge said.

George Wigg, Labor party expert on defense and security, charged that three Americans who have been working out of London were behind an international blackmail syndicate providing call girls for top men in London and New York.

Wigg said the three Americans fled London after exposure of some ramifications of former British War Minister John Profumo's affair with call girl Christine Keeler. Wigg did not name them.

At the same time, the spokesman said, "Thomas protested against 'the abuse of Holan's diplomatic position.'"

The foreign office spokesman declined to say how many days Holan had been given to pack and get out. He refused to say if the information Holan was said to be seeking was military or political.

The spokesman said he could not elaborate on the information so far given out and would not even indicate if the incident took place in London or elsewhere in Britain.

BRITISH HIT DR. WARD WITH 8 NEW CHARGES

By COLIN FROST
LONDON (AP)—The British government leveled eight new charges today, one of them involving abortion, against Dr. Stephen Ward.

The 50-year-old osteopath, a key figure in the Profumo scandal, was again refused bail. He went back to jail to await a full hearing Friday.
